

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 219. 1880, ch. 133.

377. Said owners or lessees, or their agents, are required to keep open, at all hours during the time said halls, churches, schools or places of amusement, are open to the public, all doors giving means of ingress or egress, unless said doors open outward from said places, then the same may be closed, but no hindrance, such as lock or catches of any kind, shall be allowed to obstruct or prevent instant and easy egress through the same; and when said doors open inwards, it is required of said owners, lessees and their agents, that said doors shall be fastened securely and firmly open.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 220. 1880, ch. 133.

378. Owners or lessees, or any person holding under them or their agents, violating either of the two preceding sections, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined by the court before whom such conviction is had, for any violation, a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered as other fines in this State, one-half of which shall go to the State, and the other half to the cities where such violation occurs and conviction thereof is had.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 221. 1880, ch. 133.

379. It is made the special duty of the judge or judges of the courts having criminal jurisdiction in said cities of Hagerstown, Baltimore, Cumberland, Frederick, Annapolis and Frostburg, to especially charge the grand juries of said courts upon the execution of the three preceding sections; and the police authorities of said cities are especially charged with the execution thereof, and to that end shall direct nightly examinations by some of their officers, of all such places.

1924, ch. 260, sec. 266.

380. The Mayor, by and with the consent of the Council, shall have supervision and control of all Commissions or Boards by them appointed, and their orders to any such Commission or Board shall be mandatory.*

GARBAGE.

1900, ch. 384. 1922, ch. 377.

381. The Mayor and Council of Hagerstown are hereby authorized and empowered to establish by ordinance a system for the collection of garbage within the corporate limits of Hagerstown, and its removal beyond said limits, together with the disposal of the same when so collected or removed, and to this end are authorized and empowered to enter into contract with any person or persons, corporation or corporations, for the performance of any duty or services made necessary or proper by such ordinance, or in their discretion the said Mayor and Council may appoint officers and agents to perform such duty or services, to be appointed as other city officers are appointed. And the said Mayor and Council are
